

Day 3

"Now therefore, go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what to say."

Exodus 4:12

Sometimes, it's really hard to share your faith with people. It's like, deep down inside, you really want to, but it's kind of scary. The fear of rejection is always present. Also, the fear of not having an answer for a question people may have about the Bible, and looking like a total idiot. Many times, when an opportunity comes our way to share, we keep on going because we're scared. Well, think of how Moses felt. He had to have been freaked out when God appeared to him in a burning bush, telling him to go tell Pharaoh to let His people go. That's like God coming to us today, in a burning aulhouse, saying, "Go talk to the President." Here is the cool thing. In Exodus 4:12, God told Moses, "Now therefore, go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what to say." That's awesome!! It shows God's faithfulness, that He is with us no matter what. If He calls us to share with someone, He's gonna give us the right things to say. As long as we do our part, and get into the word and pray, He'll do His part, helping us know what to say. So, next time your heart starts pumping and your palms get a little sweaty, take a step of faith and share with that person. Don't forget, God is right there helping you the whole time.

Circle the reasons that might keep you from sharing your faith...

Hate confrontation... your reputation...

you don't know what to say... fear of rejection...

Write two specific ways you can trust the Lord more, to help you share His Word with others.

Have you been reading and praying? (That has a lot to do with it.)

Think of a special, quiet place, and a good time that you can set aside for God.

Write your plan here.

Five ways you can share your faith...

Wear a sign around your neck that says, "Ask me about my faith."

Get involved with an evangelism team

Go on a mission trip

Practice with your Christian friends

Design a cool website

See what else God says...